

B Pack your wedding rings in your hand luggage for the journey. Or save yourself the worry of losing them and get married somewhere like Sri Lanka, where you could buy beautiful wedding jewellery once you get there!

Take Us To Thailand

(takeustothailand.com) is a great place to start if you're thinking of tying the knot in this fabulous country. Run by Natalie Doherty who wed on the beach in Koh Samui, the company offers bespoke yet affordable options.

V Not many resorts do vows in the sand weddings quite like Beachcomber (beachcomber-hotels.com) with resorts across Mauritius and one in the Seychelles. The one wedding per day policy makes for a truly personal day. Ceremonies start from £295 including everything from registrar's fees to flowers.

Lightweight and pretty, this Watters gown is the perfect dress for saying your vows in the sand. Check out watters.com for their full selection of stunning dresses. Pink trousers are optional...

The spice isle of Zanzibar is one of the most seductive places in Africa to tie the knot. Check out Celebrate Africa for great packages (celebrate-africa.com).

S Tying the knot in Spain is easy with the help of Stacy Reading, who runs Weddings in Spain (weddingsinspain.com). If you're not Catholic and don't have a property in Spain, you'll need to marry legally in Gibraltar first or at home before holding a blessing or exchange of vows in Spain.

Head to the USA with American Sky's (americansky.co.uk) portfolio of wedding venues from New York and the Florida Keys to Hawaii. You can even have a Star Trek Enterprise wedding in Las Vegas! Wedding packages start from £319 for a ceremony at the Leu Gardens in Orlando, Florida.

For real X-factor style, the Rome Cavalieri Hilton (hilton.co.uk) has the ultimate wedding package for up to 100 guests - for a cool $1 million! Think private jet to Rome, penthouse with butler and cocktails overlooking Rome... You can even exchange vows in a Vatican City church.
